MEMORARDUM FOR: Assistant Director for Personnel

- l. It is my desire that each applicant for employment in CIA and made aware of our policy that all individuals employed by CIA till be of excellent character and of undivided loyalty to the United States. In addition, they will be unquestionably discreas persons of good character about when there is no question as to their integrity and trustworthiness.
- 2. Each person contacting or contacted by the Fersonnel Citate for employment should be informed that this Agency, in order to assert that its employees meet its high standards, conducts an authenstive background, character, and loyalty investigation. The investigation will include, but not be limited to, inquiries designed to determine whether the individual has:
 - a. Committed or attempted to esamit, or assisted another in domnitting or attempting to esamit any act of sabotage, espionage, treason, or sedition;
 - b. Associated with espienage agents of a foreign nation, or with representatives of foreign nations whose interests are immical to those of the United States;
 - d. Been a member of a subversive organization;
 - d. Advocated revolution by force or violence to alter the constitutional form of government of the Initel States;
 - e. Deliberately omitted significant information from or falsified a Personal History Statement or any other official form;
 - f. Violated or disregarded security regulations to a degree which would endanger the common defense or national security;
 - 6. Seen a judged insano; been legally committed to an insane asylum, or treated for serious mental or neurologic 1 disorder;
 - h. Been corricted of a felony;

- i. Been or is addicted to the use of alcohol. or drugs habitually and to excess;
 - j. Engaged in honosexual acts;
- k. Been a conscientious objector to service in the Armed Forces during time of war on grounds other than religious convictions.
- 3. After investigation, matters falling within the above categories are carefully weighed in determining eligibility for employment.
- i. If an applicant should have a question as to wisther or 10% a circumstance in his or her background is disqualifying for employment in CIA, he or she should be invited to discuss the matter will my Security representatives who will afford an advisory opinion. The matters discussed will be held in strict confidence.
- 5. You may wish to have this memorandum reproduced and a coggiven to each person who is given or submits an application for employment to this Agency.

Halter B. Smith Director of Central Intelligence